

Mount Sinai Pediatric Neurology Residency Program
Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai
Outpatient Subspecialty Clinics

Below are the required General Pediatric Neurology & Subspecialty outpatient clinics that 3rd year pediatric neurology residents will rotate through for the majority (nine 4-week blocks) of their final year of residency training.

Mount Sinai Hospital / Kravis Children's Hospital

- Pediatric Neurology Resident Continuity Clinic
- Pediatric Epilepsy Clinic
- Pediatric Headache Clinic
- Pediatric Multiple Sclerosis/Neuroimmunology Clinic
- Pediatric Onco-Neurology Clinic
- Pediatric Neurometabolic Disorders Clinic
- Pediatric Neurofibromatosis Clinic
- Pediatric Adrenoleukodystrophy Clinic
- Pediatric Cerebral Palsy/Spasticity Clinic
- Pediatric Developmental Disorders/Autism Clinic

Mount Sinai Downtown - Union Square Phillips Ambulatory Center

- Pediatric Movement Disorders Clinic
- Neuro-ophthalmology Clinic at NY Eye & Ear Infirmary – mixed pediatric & adult patients

Elmhurst Hospital

- Pediatric Neurology Clinic

In addition, all 2nd year pediatric neurology residents will be required to do a 4-week Pediatric Genetics rotation and a 4-week Child & Adolescent Psychiatry rotation that are both located at the Mount Sinai Hospital and comprised of rotating through the following outpatient subspecialty clinics :

Pediatric Genetics Rotation – Mount Sinai Hospital

- Fragile X Spectrum Disorder Clinic
- Lysosomal Storage Disorders Clinic
- Mitochondrial Medicine Clinic
- Inherited Metabolic Disease Clinic
- Clinical Genetics Disorders Clinic
- Multidisciplinary Cleft and Craniofacial Clinic
- Pediatric Neurometabolism Clinic
- Pediatric Neurogenetics Clinic
- Pediatric Adrenoleukodystrophy Clinic

Child & Adolescent Psychiatry Rotation – Mount Sinai Hospital

- Pediatric ADHD Clinic
- Pediatric Seaver Autism Center Clinic
- Pediatric Tourette's and Tic Disorders Clinic